"Mt. Vernon" Tea.

The members of Hart Chapter, D A. R., and Virginia Han on Chapter. U. D. C., enjoyed a delightful "Mt. Vernon tea" with Mrs. Charles Nelson on Thursday afternoon.

To each guest, a post card given, bearing the recital of an ineident, and these when read connectedly completed a very entertaining description of "a trip to Mt. Vernon." The story was very the patriotic colors of red, white and eleverly written by Mrs. Nelson herself, and furnished one of the most enjoyable features of a thoroughly delightful occasion.

The house was charmingly deco An enjoyable meeting of the M. C. rated in American and Confederate Club was held with Mrs. J. Smith flags, and presented a beautifully patriotie appearance.

A Sad Commentary on Winchester

One of our local pastors was asked by a stranger a few days ago, if Winchester could be depended upon to support a high, moral and intellectual entertainment. The friend of Winchester was compelled to say it could not, that a skating rink, a moving picture show or a cheap opera are the only kinds of entertainments that draw crowds in Winchester.

May God hasten the day when this may not be truthfully said.

Methodist Church

On the third Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. G. A. Joplin, of the Kentucky Sunday-school Association, gave an interesting talk to the Sunday-school workers of Winchester at the Methodist church.. He tried to impress his hearers with the importance of the Institute work. We hope to have him hold an in-titute in Winchester in the near future.

Rev. Leonadis Robinson, pastor of he First Methodist church, delivered the first of a series of discourses. Sunday evening. His subject was "A Man's Religion and His Business." Some of the leading points were these: "There is no division be ween the secular and the sacred." Take your business into your religion. Take your religion into your business. Make religion your business, and not business your religion. Possess your business. Do not a! low your business to possess you. (One beautiful illustration of how greed blinds the eyes was this; "Trinity church, at the head of Wall street, holds the commandments ent in gold, but gain getters never see them, nor the spire that points to heaven. They never look higher than the clock."

His subject for next Sunday will be "A Man's Religion And Church." All are invited. A cordial invitation is extended to stran-

First Christian Church

The congregation of the First Christian church is anticipating with much pleasure, the visit Sunday, February 25, of two of their leading missionaries, A. E. Corey, from China. and Dr. Royal J. Dye, from the Congo, in Africa. Dr. Dye's church in Africa is probably the most remarkable church in the world, in that, out of a membership of about seven hundred it supports seventy of its number as missionaries to the heathen in the surrounding country. In other words, every nine members supports the tenth as a missionary.

Associated Charities

During the past week this organzation has furnished effithing to 8 hildren in order that they might attend Sunday school. The name of each child who has been provided for is sent to the Superintendent of his Sunday School and reports are expeeted from the Superintendent as to the child's regular attendance and good behavior.

In this way the General Secretary, Miss Peddicord, is enabled to keep an oversight over work done, to report results. It also aids in the selections of worthy cases.

To help those who are helpless, to raise the fallen, to encourage the discouraged, all this is only an intelligent self-protection. To ignore those in poverty, to despise those who have fallen by the way is stupidity and not worthy to be called
